Calistoga Cycling Team

Although you still might see the occasional Papa John's Cycling Team jersey on the road, in competition the members now are wearing white jerseys emblazoned with the red logo of the new sponsor, Calistoga Bakery Café, co-founded by Papa John's founder John Schnatter.

Captain Bob Bobrow said much of team's focus this year will be on the return of USA Cycling's Masters Road National Championships to Louisville from June 30-July 6. The event was here last in 2003.
