Calistoga Bakery Café opened at Coastland Center on Friday during the holiday shopping rush.

The coffee house and sandwich shop's newest location is connected to the food court on the south side of the mall. It has a coffee window in the food court area and indoor and outside seating.

"Our goal is to provide a place where people can sit back, relax, get online with our free WiFi and enjoy their coffee and one of our freshly prepared menu items," said Bill Zimmer, operating partner of the Coastland location, in a prepared statement.

Calistoga's other locations are Fountain Park center at Airport-Pulling and Vanderbilt Beach roads and Gulf Coast Town Center in San Carlos Park. The company, owned by Naples developer Mark Bates and Papa John's founder John Schnatter, also has restaurants planned for Bonita Springs and Lexington, Ky., and Louisville, Ky.

Address: Coastland Center, 1860 U.S. 41 N., Naples. Phone: (239) 352-8642 (TOGA). Web site: www.calistogacafe.com
